Visa Guide for Traveling to the United States

1) Typically your passport must not expire within six months of your arrival date in the United States. If your passport is going to expire within six months of arrival, you should get a new passport before traveling.

2) The following are general guidelines; for details and authoritative information, please consult: <http://travel.state.gov/content/visas/english.html> If you already have a visa to enter the United States, or other officially-recognized credentials, then you needn't apply for a separate visa specifically for the 'International Chinese Vocal Competition'.

Those from the 27 countries following that are part of the Visa Waiver Program don't need to obtain a visa to enter the United States. [#1] Andorra, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brunei, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Monaco, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, San Marino, Singapore, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom

3) Citizens of Canada and Bermuda are typically not required to get a visa.

4) Other countries and regions require a visa to enter the United States. Typically, you can process a 'Visitors Visa' (B Visa). Those who wish to apply for this visa should first contact us to confirm your participation and receive an invitation letter to use as part of your application. The waiting and processing period differs between countries. Participants should make their visa applications as soon as possible to ensure processing.

Note [#1] Note that if you come from one of the 27 countries in the Visa Waiver Program, then you only need to ensure you're registered in the Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA), and you are eligible to stay in the United States for 90 days. All travelers must have machine-readable passports.

Registration Fee [#2]

1) Nonrefundable registration fee of US$120. Applications cannot be processed without payment.

2) Accepted forms of payment include online payment, credit card, traveler's check, or money orders.

3) Please make your check payable to New Tang Dynasty Television, and mark "Vocal Competition" on the check.

Note [#2]: Under normal circumstances, applicant's registration becomes valid only after he or she has paid the registration fee. For applicants who cannot prepay the registration fee due to special difficulties, they are required to submit a formal written request to delay the payment of registration fee until the time of competition. There will be a US$20 surcharge in such cases.
